

BAKU SITUATION MUCH IMPROVED

Troops Steadily Arriving in City and Worst is Believed to Be Over.

WORKMEN ARE DESTITUTE

Much Suffering Among People, Many of Whom Are Without Sufficient Clothing.

(By Associated Press.)
TIFLIS, Sept. 10.—The Governor of Baku reports that firing continued last night and to-day, though on a smaller scale, and that few were killed or wounded. The troops and police, he says, are still engaged in preventing incendiarism and pillaging. The worst news to-day comes from the Zangezur district, where it is reported that many Armenian villages were wiped out and hundreds of persons killed.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. PETERSBURG, September 10.—M. P. Pappo, the Baku representative of the Baku Bourse, said to the Associated Press to-day that the situation at Baku continues to show a distinct improvement. Telegrams received by Mr. Pappo to-day from the oil men report the steady arrival of troops, five further battalions having reached Baku, and the worst is believed to be over. Later reports show the condition of the workmen, many of whom are without sufficient clothing and are utterly destitute.

M. Pappo paid a compliment to Premier Minister Kozlov for the energy with which he acted since the uprising. The minister visited the Emperor twice to lay before him the gravity of the situation, as the result of which His Majesty twice telegraphed to the viceroy to spare nothing to prevent the destruction of this important industry.

It is officially reported that all the Baku residents are safe. The Rika and Orlov and the Baltic and Nikolai Railroads have decided in consequence of the scarcity of naphtha to purchase large quantities of English coal.

John Watson, alias C. Buckner, aged twenty-six; Vance Harris, aged twenty-two, and Bob Saunders, aged twenty-four, all white, had concealed a large sum of money, which they were attempting to use for the purpose of buying a new establishment of the alley behind the hardware establishment of Mr. Bernard Vaden, and were going through him, when Sergeant Wright, like a good fairy, appeared on the scene, and brought them to justice.

"The game is up," J. Ralston relaxed and surrendered, but his two companions disappeared in the gloom. The sergeant, in the meantime, went upon a still hunt and landed his men on Eleventh and Hull Streets.

All the men first said they belonged to "the show," which visited Manchester last week, but later claimed Richmond as their home.

Just what the bad man of Nansemond did to the Hon. Josiah is not told. He might have accused him of being opposed to apple brandy or not growing enthusiastic over the delectable catfish mullus so deftly curiously made, even to this day by our distinguished friend, Dr. Thos. Josiah had his troubles, but he is now said to the eternal credit of Nansemond there are no longer such bitter things written of her candidates.—Norfolk Public Ledger.

GOVERNOR MONTAGUE MAY MAKE HIS FIRST SPEECH IN NELSON.

Says Committee Gave Straight-out a Raw Deal—Judge Rhea Against Primary.

Following the storm that raged so fiercely here toward the end of the week, there was on the 10th a calm of the political deep last night that was almost painful by way of contrast. Hardly a single out of town Democrat of prominence was in the city, most of them having left for their homes Saturday night.

Congressman Flood and Colonel Butler went up to Appomattox to spend Sunday, and Mr. Swanson went to Chatham to remain a few days, and the latter will return here about Friday and open his campaign at Hanover Court-house on Monday.

Colonel Butler will be back in a few days, and State headquarters will likely be opened up by the end of the week. There is some talk of enquiring rooms at one of the up-town hotels, but it is more likely that the battle will be directed from rooms in the Mutual Assurance Society building.

Mr. Ellyson will have an army of speakers at his command, and he will endeavor to cover all the courts in the State beginning with next Monday.

Senators Daniel and Martin, Governor Montague will all take an active part on the stump, and their services will be in demand in many sections of the State.

Governor in Nelson.
Governor Montague is being earnestly pressed by his friends to speak at Lovingsburg in Nelson county at a Democratic meeting on the fourth Monday, which will be September 24th. This will be the only court day in that county prior to the election, and it is not unlikely that the Governor will go, provided he makes any speeches on the stump. The time and place are being discussed by the friends of the Governor, and it is likely that the Governor will go, provided he makes any speeches on the stump.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Sept. 10.—The Second Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery Association of Civil War Veterans will soon place markers on the battlefield of the Crater to show the positions of their regiment in that desperate fight, where they lost six hundred out of eight hundred men.
